

A photograph of St Lawrence Church in Alton, a historic stone building with a tall, grey-tiled spire and a large circular window. The church is set against a clear blue sky. A blue sign for the church is visible on the left.

ALTON TOWN GUIDED WALKS

Join us on guided walks around historic Alton

2025 DATES

- 18th Jan • 15th Feb • 15th Mar • 19th Apr
- 17th May • 21st Jun • 19th Jul • 16th Aug
- 20th Sep • 18th Oct • 15th Nov • 20th Dec

Supported by:

ALTON
COMMUNITY CENTRE

Meet at the Cairn near the Curtis Museum entrance, 11am, the third Saturday of every month:
Adults £3 & Children (5-16) 50p

Civil War and Local Pub Walks are also available, and special group walks can be arranged on other days.

- Where does the phrase “Sweet Fanny Adams” originate?
- Where can you find musket ball holes in a door?
- Where did Jane Austen enjoy retail therapy?
- Where is the second oldest purpose built Friends Meeting House in continuous use in England?

For answers to these questions, plus more history and insight from local guides, come along to an Alton Town Walk!

ALTON TOWN GUIDED WALKS

Call us for further information on:

01420 85057